Film

CINECITY presents Independent Cinema Office's Essentials: The Secret Masterpieces of Cinema – monthly themed programmes of artists' film, including newly restored classics and influential gems that have blazed a trail through the visual arts, fashion, music and design.

Essentials: Play

Mon 27 Apr • 6.30pm (doors 6pm)

Essentials: Play honours the irreverent, impudent, subversive and fun in artists' film. Ranging from Dada to Postmodernism this programme is a playground for unconventional ideas and approaches, with work that mocks and parodies a cinema that takes itself seriously for all the wrong reasons. These playful works cast aside pretensions and freely celebrate life and art in all its forms. Featuring work by Hans Richter, Ken Jacobs, John Smith, Dinos & Jake Chapman and George Kuchar.

Tickets: £5/£4 concs/£2 NUS on the door only

Hullabaloo

Sun 5 Apr • 7.30pm (doors 7pm)

Hullabaloo – Brighton’s acappella darlings – are BACK!

“the aural equivalent of finding a fifty quid note in the street.”
Brighton Fringe

Brighton-based Hullabaloo Community Quire is a 100 strong choir founded by Music Director Kirsty Martin. United in spine-tingling close harmony, our growing repertoire includes arrangements of songs by David Bowie, Kaiser Chiefs, Kate Bush, Indigo Girls, Fairport Convention, The Jackson Five, Curtis Mayfield and Groove Armada. This night brings you a gorgeously eclectic set of some of Hullabaloo’s favourite songs – from soul to scat, ballad to blues and political anthem to punk – all hummed, hollered, and harmonised to percussion, beatbox and cello.

Plus special guests THE HAT “Intoxicating...an esoteric delight” – The Guardian & RED JACKSON “Chicago blues and mellow grooves”

Hullabaloo – harmony in glorious Technicolor.

City Theatre Company presents

On The Town

Tue 14 & Sat 18 Apr •
for times see below

Music by Leonard Bernstein
Book & Lyrics by Betty Comden
and Adolph Green
From a concept by Jerome Robbins

One City, Three Sailors, 24 Hours!

On the Town is the original New York, New York musical!

Set in wartime 1944, this is the story of three sailors’ adventurous 24-hour leave in New York City. Their fabulous day-long journey is spurred by a search for sailor Gabey’s dream girl, “Miss Turnstiles”. Along the way, each sailor falls in love with a woman, and with New York City itself. Songs include “New York, New York”, “Some Other Time”, and “I Can Cook Too”.

CTC is proud to be presenting this rarely-performed piece, which pre-dates Bernstein’s iconic West Side Story by almost 15 years. This is a feel-good show with a soaring musical score and taught lyrics. On the Town has a talented cast and will be performed with a 15 piece orchestra to do Bernstein’s score the justice it deserves.

An amateur production in association with Boosey & Hawkes Music Publishers Ltd

Tue 14 Apr • 7.45pm & Sat 18 Apr • 7.45 (doors 7.15pm)
Sat 18 Apr Matinee • 2.30pm (doors 2pm)

The Nightingale

by H.C.Andersen

Sat 2 May – Mon 4 May • For times see below

A musical laughter-filled family show for people aged 5 and upwards, full of imagination, colourful delight and the magic of the harp.

Andersen's fabulous magical tale "The Nightingale" and its song "that can go to everyone's heart" touches on the triumph of forgiveness, imagination, simple truth and beauty over mechanical and political sophistication, hierarchy and consumerism.

The hilarious use of instruments and props made from recycled materials alongside a magic harp, make this a unique family-experience; not to be missed!

Those who saw "The Snow Queen" in 2005 will relish this new production directed by award-winning Vasile Nedelcu.

Sat 2 May • 3pm (doors 2.30pm)

Mon 4 May • 3pm (doors 2.30pm)

& 4.30pm (doors 4pm)

Teater Patrasket presents

Wireless

Fri 8 May – Sun 10 May • For times see below

A chair. A stool. A red watering can. A shiny floor. Alive to the sounds of mechanical toys, creaking handles, buzzing bees.

Enter five clowns. Big clowns. Small clowns. Sad clowns. Mischievous clowns. Together they act out the hilarious drama of their wordless universe.

Wireless is the latest show from Danish children's theatre company Patrasket. With an ensemble cast drawn from the worlds of mime and European physical theatre, they dream up 'little wonders' of creative invention – playful and unpretentious. As they play, fight, laugh and pratfall, the clowns try to make sense of their world. A world where nothing is quite as it seems and everything is possible. Where cardboard boxes have mobile phone potential. Where the simple task of putting out chairs becomes a chessboard battle of wit and cunning.

Devised by French director Catherine Poher – four time winner of the country's premier theatre award Reumertprisen – Wireless is a balancing act of comedy, mime and music that speaks to the humanity in all of us – whatever our age.

Fri 8 May • 4.30pm & 6.30pm
Sat 9 & Sun 10 May • 11am & 2pm

Tickets: £10, Children £6, Family ticket £30 (2 adults & 2 children)

The Medic Revue

Sat 23 – Sun 24 May • 8pm (doors 7.30)

Fistulas, suppositories, and frivolities – hilarious insights into the NHS, embarrassing ailments and the world of "Tomorrow's Doctors". Students from Brighton and Sussex Medical School offer a comic perspective on the life of a modern medical student.

On the back of their rave review and sell-out show in the Brighton fringe 08, the cast perform a brand new show that promises to be in more demand than hospital beds.

"Exceptionally strong cast"..."snappy sketches"..."current and intelligent humour"..."had my sides splitting in laughter" ****

Jenni Murray

with Simon Fanshawe

Wed 13 May • 7.30pm (doors 7pm)

Jenni Murray isn't just the voice of Woman's Hour. She is Woman's Hour. Her calm conversational tone and no-nonsense journalistic instinct has steered BBC Radio 4's flagship magazine programme through 20 years of debate, discussion and commentary. In 2006 she began a memoir. Part diary, part confessional, Memoirs of a Not so Dutiful Daughter was a characteristically candid book that chronicled the highs and lows of Jenni's own life including her widely-publicised battle with breast cancer. In this intimate conversation, Murray discusses the formative influences, career profile and personal politics that have helped shape one of the UK's most admired broadcasters.
