Critical Care: Advancing an Ethic of Care in Theory and Practice

13th& 14th September 2012
University of Brighton, England

Conference Papers – Plenaries

- Thursday 13th September 10.20 – 11.20
    - o Marian Barnes Struggling, for, with and against care

- Friday 14th September 9.30 – 10.30
    - o Joan Tronto Democratic caring and global responsibilities for care

- Friday 14th September 14.00 – 15.00
    - o Ingunn Moser Welfare technology and telecare: new ideals and types of care

Conference Papers – Workshops

- Caring Institutions
    - o Workshop 1 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
        - Vivianne Baur Client participation and 'care full policy making' in residential care homes
        - Judith McKenzie Exploring an ethics of care for adults with intellectual disability in residential facilities in South Africa – paper unavailable

    - o Workshop 2 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
        - Sarah Banks Between care and justice: social work as 'ethics work' – paper unavailable
        - Neil Henderson 'Caring about' the client: the challenges of being a social work student in South Africa– paper unavailable

    - o Workshop 7 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35
        - Kristín Björnsdóttir 'I try to develop a net around each patient': on the development of relationships in home care

- Anne Liveng Paradoxical constructions in Danish elderly care. What happens when New Public Management and salutogenic theory join hands?

- Workshop 13 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
  - Marion Droz Mendelzweig Care as a work of regulation
  - Andy Bradley, Kirsty Murray 'Let the Music Play' - Elevating the status of care-giving
- Workshop 14 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
  - Ellen Grootegoed The gendered impact of the new citizen care-giver: Some critical notes based on care-givers' experiences
  - Lineke van Hal Caring in the context of activation: how clients and professionals deal with ambivalent return-to-work policies

- Workshop 20 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
  - Flis Henwood Inform with care! Exploring the relationship between information and care in contemporary health and social care contexts – paper unavailable
  - Lizzie Ward, Marian Barnes, Beatrice Gahagan Co-production of knowledge: research practice and an ethic of care

- Workshop 21 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
  - Catherine-Rose Stocks-Rankin Mapping Relationships: Contracting for Care in Older People's Services
  - Mary Ellen Purkis, Kristín Björnsdóttir, Christine Ceci The historical implications of measuring caregiver burden– paper unavailable

- Workshop 25 Friday 14th September 15.20 – 16.50
  - Lindsey Nicholls Love's labour found; identification, reparation and reciprocity in therapeutic relationships
  - Tineke Abma, Linda Dauwerse, Wieke van der Borg, Petra Verdonk Empowerment of the work floor in residential settings: the discovery of relations and connectedness– paper unavailable

- Workshop 26 Friday 14th September 15.20 – 16.50
  - Mary Twomey Care, context and autonomy: how does an understanding of autonomy as relational challenge the institutional contexts of clinical practice? – paper unavailable
  - Gideon Calder Care Ethics, Context and Social Critique

- Family and / or Friends
  - Workshop 3 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
    - Janice McLaughlin Ethics of family and care in healthcare
    - Marian Verkerk Ethics of care in family and health care

  - Workshop 9 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35

- Alessandro Pratesi "I was the apple of his eye and he was the apple of mine": informal care, status inclusion and self-empowering dynamics
- Jane Ribbens McCarthy, Raia Prokhovnik Caring after death and embodied relationality – paper unavailable

- Workshop 15 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
  - Rachel Treloar Paradoxes of mothers' care work after separation/divorce in (neo-liberal) Canada
  - Brunella Casalini Care relationships beyond the 'natural sexual' family

- Workshop 19 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
  - Nicki Ward Communities of care: exploring expressions of care in cultural communities
  - Sanja Milutinović Bojanić Care through a queer lens

Self-Care
- Workshop 4 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
  - Lizzie Ward Exploring self-care as self-in-relation to others
  - Christine Ceci, Vera Caine, Brenda Cameron, Helen Kohlen, Derek Sellman Self-care, citizenship and vulnerable populations

- Workshop 10 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35
  - Roma Harris, Flis Henwood, Philippa Spoel Self-care as a relational practice in the pursuit of 'healthy living'
  - Jennifer Hauver James Teachers as mothers in the elementary classroom: negotiating the needs of self and other

Care, Space and Place
- Workshop 5 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
  - Tula Brannelly, Amohia Boulton, Allie Te Hiini A relationship between the ethics of care and Māori worldview – the place of relationality and care in Māori mental health service provision
  - Beatrice Gahagan Exploring an ethic of care in relation to place and the natural world

- Workshop 11 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35
  - Naomi Smith Going walkabout – spaces of care, learning to move in the landscapes of dementia
  - Heather Dunn Exploring meanings of care in older people's care homes– paper unavailable

- Workshop 17 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
  - Mark Smith Starting in a children's home: the importance of everyday practices of care in developing a sense of belonging – paper unavailable
  - Rosie Cox, Kendra Strauss Critical geographies of care: regaining the politics of social reproduction

- Care for Strangers
  - Workshop 6 Thursday 13th September 11.25 – 12.55
    - Diego de Merich From immersion to process: the empathic turn in pursuit of a caring ethic in international development– paper unavailable
    - Teodora Manea Critical care and Medical Migration

  - Workshop 24 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
    - Kathleen Collins A critical ethic of care for the homeless
    - Roma Harris, Nadine Wathen What does 'care' mean in shelters for abused women?

- Intersectionality and Global Perspectives
  - Workshop 8 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35
    - Zuzana Uhde The meaning of transnational care practices
    - Olena Hankivsky Intersectionality and care ethics

- Deliberating with Care
  - Workshop 12 Thursday 13th September 14.05 – 15.35
    - Tineke Abma Involvement in long-term care. Towards a relational care ethics appraoch
    - Vivienne Bozalek Connections between emerging technology learning theories and the political ethics of care

- Care by and amongst service users
  - Workshop 16 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
    - Ann Fudge Schormans Visual re-presentations of responsibility and response-ability for care for/by people with intellectual disabilities– paper unavailable
    - Nicki Ward The Importance of Reciprocity and Mutuality: people with learning disabilities as carers – paper unavailable

  - Workshop 22 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
    - Ruth Emond Learning to care: the meaning of care in a Cambodian orphanage
    - Sheila Garrity Communities of care: vulnerability and shared care-giving

  - Workshop 27 Friday 14th September 15.20 – 16.50
    - Ruth Evans, Agnes Atim Interdependent caring relation and participation in HIV-affected families and communities in Tanzania and Uganda
    - Anke Niehof 'Women's morality' and the matriarchy of care in a context of HIV and AIDS

4

- Care and Technology
  - Workshop 18 Thursday 13th September 16.00 – 17.30
    - Mary Darking, Steve Flowers, Emma Gillingham, Lawrence Goldberg and Flis Henwood Care, technology and administration: an ethic of care analysis of the competing demands placed on ward nursing
    - Frans Vosman Good care and information technology on the ward – paper unavailable

  - Workshop 29 Friday 14th September 15.20 – 16.50
    - Andrew Eccles Ethical issues in the use of technology based social care
    - Ike Kamphof The (in)visibility of care. On the use of activity monitoring technology in homecare

- Care, control, inclusion and exclusion
  - Workshop 23 Friday 14th September 10.50 – 12.20
    - Tula Brannelly Tronto's integrity of care as a framework to guide care by avoiding oppression
    - Leslie Swartz Unmentionables: Layers of invisibility in informal interpreting in mental health care in South Africa – paper unavailable

- Care and Control
  - Workshop 28 Friday 14th September 15.20 – 16.50
    - Laura Steckley Physical restraint in residential child care: using care ethics and containment towards resolving ethical dilemmas in care and control
    - Laura Banks, Julia Stroud Community treatment orders: exploring the ethics and experiences of compulsory mental health care in the community