

What makes Electronic Patient Record systems work?

Reflections from general practice, oncology, and renal care

A joint symposium by the Brighton & Sussex Medical School and the University of Brighton's School of Applied Social Science.

Programme

9.15	Welcome &amp; Introduction: Prof Jackie Cassell, Brighton & Sussex Medical School
Session I: Chair: Dr Mary Darking, University of Brighton
9.30	Patient Record Systems for summarising and co-ordinating care - the case of General Practice  Context, Introduction to our system, GP perspective, Practice manager perspective	Prof Jackie Cassell, Brighton & Sussex Medical School  Dr Lesley Axelrod, University of Sussex
10.15	Question and Answer
11.00	Coffee Break
Session II: Chair: Prof Flis Henwood, University of Brighton
11.15	Patient Record Systems in specialist short-term care – the case of Oncology  Context, Introduction to our system, Consultant perspective, Member of multidisciplinary team perspective	Dr Alistair Ring, Brighton & Sussex Medical School
12.00	Question and Answer
12.45	Lunch
Session III: Chair: Dr Simon de Lusignan, University of Surrey
13.30	Patient Record Systems in specialist ongoing care – the case of renal medicine  Context, Introduction to our system, Consultant perspective, Nursing team perspective, Patient perspective	Dr Lawrence Goldberg, Chief of Specialised Services, BSUHT and  Dr Mary Darking, University of Brighton
14.15	Question and Answer
15.00	Coffee Break
Session IV: Closing
15.15	Panel Discussion: How can records help us provide better care across the health service?
16.15	Summary Comments and Close

Please register your intention to attend: DA.Epidemiology@bsms.ac.uk

www.bsms.ac.uk/electronic-patient-record-symposium for further information.