SYMPOSIUM ON PRISON ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN IN THE CONTEXT OF REFORM

2 JUNE 2017 at the ROYAL INSTITUTE OF BRITISH ARCHITECTS (RIBA), 66 PORTLAND PLACE, LONDON

To mark the end of a major, international ESRC-funded research study into prison architecture, design and technology conducted by the University of Brighton and the University of Birmingham, we invite you to register for a Symposium on Prison Architecture and Design in the Context of Reform.

Reflecting the scope of the three-year study, the Symposium will focus on prison planning, design and modernisation in England & Wales, Scotland, Norway and Denmark. Speakers and delegates will be a mixture of academic researchers with a particular interest in prisons and imprisonment, architects who have designed custodial facilities, prison managers and senior corrections and justice personnel.

The programme will include panels on:

- Prison design in England & Wales in the current context of reform
- The Nordic experience
- The Scottish experience
- The power of horticulture, gardens and landscape
- World café discussion (facilitated by Dr Dominique Moran)
